SOCIAL EVENTS THEATRES PERSONAL NOTES

THE WOMAN'S S

EDITED BY MISS M. R. SHERWOOD

NEWS OF CLUB FASHIONS SHOPPER'S GLIDE

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE WORLD THEATRES AND AMUSEMENT

POLIS

first show this week, opening Tear's day, will be one fitting audeville part will be headed There is a special setting the sensation of the season.

versatile people take part Though "Cheating Cheaters" is deon which is fast through-n, the leading attraclaughs are guaranteed by should be.

The Poli Players have been aug-It is much enhanced by requires a large cast. nity of getting out of door will be Francis Williams & who will appear in Britgaspecial request. This big of dramatic players, sutheir portrayal of comic or will offer squething out al Shirleys, known widely rats of music, will perdifferent instruments ers including the "Consul Bettey," and the simian acts, is billed for as those who realize the

PLAZA

ine New Year's pro been arranged to usher in of Hearts, one of va-est girl offerings with and hilarity cleverly and the in-between attractions while "Lev-Burke's Litest and g novelty with J. Ed-another. "Levitation" new and it's a scream will not rayel. and the other big-time he more than pleased with merrymaking youths with eir throats and deviltry in s, Murphy, Van and Kenyon, will have an important spot of they'll fill it well, you can.

er and Bartell,a pair of black. ares with some screamingly arise and several other fea-Il compose the remainder of oks Are Asked to Relieve Leat Situation by Refusing Squab Chickens.

OILERS SHOUL

ton, Dec. 81 Housestre wish to help relieve the meat will buy three-pound brottand fryers and refuse to use b chickens' 'weighing a pound, sks longer, including two lat eye. of crate fleshing, will weigh both largely from such by-pro-set ordinarily used for human as buttermilk, sour milk, skim said low grade grains. the chicken which ha been kept hree pounds, moreover, chickfor its production about twice food. This makes plain why as in the United States. In the Norman J, Blackwood will the demand in Europe has led charge of the Mercy. my exportation of three-pound ch exports having ceased, -pound chickons are now his for home consumption, a diminishes is clear gain to the Raising the weight of the Led utility birds, used for ar brofling beyond three

And the other is to convert an old t when their egg-laying usewever, involves uneconomiof feedstuffs to produce an

REMAN BOUQUET AND

LYRIC

The lovers of good wholesome farce melodrama, will receive a treat at the Lyric theatre this week, when one of comedy, drama, remance, byfic theatre this week, when one of spitional in vaudeville will New York's greatest successes will be presented. The play "Cheating Cheaters," comes to the Lyric from a rec-Refly & Company in the ord run in New ork and was pronounced by the press and public to be scribed as a "crook" play, it is not a "crook" play, but a delightful farce, built solely for laughing purposes, yet be Madge Kennedy, who will throughout the theme, a dainty litscreen debut, taking the tle love story entwined, concerning the One hero and heroine, as all good plays producing piece by Mar-which had such a long mented for this play, by the addition York during its stage of several capable actors, as the plot

"Cheating Cheaters" is the second beautiful scenery and the of four attractions that will be prefour weeks in the history of *stock

WEST END.

The latest Arthur H. Jacobs' pro duction, Jane Grey in "Her Fighting Chance," will be shown at the West End theatre today, matinee and

This powerful Jane Grey vehicle is a picturisation of 'The Fiddling Man" by James Oliver Curwood, who belongs to that small group of well known writers of high class fiction give offence. the screen. His characters are of the real red blooded sort—beautiful women and virile men who do interesting the restore of the real red blooded sort—beautiful women and virile men who do interesting the restore of ture drama.

Tomorrow continuous show 2-10:30, fore her escort. Maxine Elliott in "Fighting Odds," six

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Varnish or shellac may be applied to the edges of Brussels or tapestry carpets when designed for mats. They carefully, over the edge of a knife. To prolong the usefulness of shoes. apply a coat of painter's oil to the ioles. Do not touch the uppers.

USEFUL HOLDER FOR DOORS

Upon first thought you would think that a door holder must be ugly-ar unsightly thing. But is it not at all. The stores are showing them made and send him on his mission.

CANDY BOXES

FOR THE SUN PARLOR

For the sun partor with the cerise to chickens' 'weighing a poemd, painted watering pot, the painted tin of the United States of gayer flowers, use sand colored paper and white chintz curtains, for sying of underdeveloped or your little Scotch heather plant of mickens in hotels, rectaurants lavender pink in its red pot, and your se, they regard as unpatriotic other blosming color notes will form chickens, if kept for riot enough to please the most futur-

three pounts. Moreover, under NAVAL HOSPITAL SHIPS TO HAVE WOMEN NURSES

three-pound brotler or fryer of Washington, Dec. 29—Woman nurses the utility breads, the speciales are to be employed on naval hospital ships in this war for the first time in American naval history. It became known today that they will It weight four or five pounds. be assigned to two ships soon to be three pounds, moreover, chick-utility breeds make their fiesh effectively from feed. Above Mercy, formerly the Saratoga, of the

Both liners have been completely pound size always has been dations for 300 patients each. Surmed bird in Europe where both geon R. C. Holsomb will command the Comfort and Medical Inspector

TWO WAYS TO MAKE OVER YOUR TRAY

There are two ways of accomplishing up to five or six pounds are ing a made-over tray. One is to get a tray frame with handles and supply at primarily to lay eggs, use of a new filler, which is the set-in piece of stuff directly beneath the glass, and, picture frame into a useful tray, retaining, of course, the frame and the glass and adding a pair of handles.

Either acheme offers unlimited possibilities for display of your talent. The results depend entirely on your resources of taste and ingenuity.

New Ruff of Taupe

Each season sees styles long forgotten revived with such modification as to put the saucy touch of the times into them. Here we have a close-fitextra attraction for the production in Bridgeport. Next week ting ruff of taupe and chiffon velvet. 6 the offering will be "Potash and Perl- The ruff will be a predominant feature di of many spring wardrobes. The muff is accordion shaped in the most ap-en and virile men who do interesting the matron first; as "Mrs. Robinson, things, and his works abound in the let me present Miss Smith." The, action so necessary to successful pic- guests should be introduced singly, and each lady should be presented be-

J.-After a formal call the hostess neither thanks the guest for coming nor asks her to come again. When you are visiting in the home of a friend, and a party is given in your honor, you should asist the hostess with the refreshments unless she has servants to do this for her, or unless she has asked other friend to help her, so that you will not have to leave the room. At any rate, you ning to end. You remem-plane Mover." "Fixing the drawing the parts rather tightly, but to remove her hat, if the other fadies theirs. It is always well to conform to custom you do not drink or rise when a toast is drunk in your honor. you remain seated, and smile and bow. PICTURESQUE AND and perhaps also murmur your thanks for the good wishes so expressed.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE WAR TIME TEA STAND?

most attractively. A little wooden the tea stands or tea tables nowadays lady with wide, outstanding skirts in in the shops—and also in the drawthe fashion of 1830, and any house- ing-rooms and living-rooms of one's keeper would welcome a windy day, friends. They are especially note-just to see a troublesome, banging wosthy in that they consist not only door held back by this picturesque a big tea table, but of several little bit of usefulness. She is painted stands usually four that are when not in use a compact part of the tea blue around her three-flounced skirt. Her hair is a flaming red—and the its pedestals, dust about big enough ruff around her neck is blue. An old-for the individual cup of tea. And fashioned made bouquet with flowers they are litted in grooves in the unpink, and green leaves is painted der part of the tea table when not pressed against her bosom. place they are taken out when they Candy boxes are very congenial—dividual stands may be found in conlarge, round candy boxes painted nection with a tea wagon, and al-with brilliant conventional flowers though it is difficult now to think of Or, if not a box-a gergeous yellow tea in the garden, still it must be adparrot with a grass green head and mitted that these wagons, with their red feather. Fill him with candy attendant individual stands, would be ideal for out-of-door use in summer.

FUNERAL BOUQUET AND DESIGNS JOHN RECK & SON

MONEY SAVING

FUR SALE

Genuine Black Fox Fur Muffs $25 and up. All of our Furs are Genuine as represented. Most elegant and attrac-tive Fur Muffs and Scarfs in the city. These are priced exceptionally low and the values cannot be duplicated else-

We have catered to you for years and our FURS are last-ing, giving good service.

BRING YOUR FURS HERE TO BE REMODEL-ED AND REPAIRED.

Special Prices on Fur Trimmings, Muff Beds, and Fur Collars for Cloth Coats.

34 Post Office, Arcade

Est. 1900. Tel. Bar. 1304-4

Farmer Want Ads. One Cent a Word country's welfare. It is only with account of a pessible hundred.

and Chiffon Velvet MUST REPORT FOR DUTY ON

Red Cross Nurse is Called to bring prosecutions under the fact, providing for the survey in order to Date.

BROOKLAWN COUNTRY CLUB'S PROGRAM

Knitting Instructors For Each Day In the Week.

Miss Mary Flannagan, of 1988. Fairfield avenue, who is a Red Cross nurse and a graduate of St. Vincent's hospital training school for nurses, has been notified by Miss Elise Evers, the chairman of the Red Cross Nurses' Association in this city to be ready to report for service on January directly or sent to do some special service here is not known, but she must hold herself in readiness for duty on and after January 62 155 1610 Aug

Red Cross activities at the Seaside Red Cross activities at the Seaside institute, headquarters of the local workers are in full swing. There is great need for knitted articles and arrangements have been made to have a knitting instructor at the institute each day from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and on Tuesday evening. Those who with a new acquaintance; you may Mrs. R. J. McKenzle, Tuesday, Mrs.

In addition to the front line packages a special order that was received the first of December, has been filled and shipped. It was a pretty large order and its completion shows the splendid working capacity of the workers here. It included 100 splint straps; 6,000 shot bass; 200 heel rings, and 10,000 wipes. The work ers have guaranteed to put out a large number, of front line, packets each

The program at the Brooklawn Country Club for the month is rather interesting. It starts tomorrow with the customary New Year's breakfast at 1 o'clock, which is always largely at-tended. On Safurday there will be in the receiving line are not, wearing the usual teleprotection with the metal teleprotection and teleprotecti d'hote dinner and a moving picture. program at 8:20. Sanday evening, January 6, there will be a Twelfth Night-Supper. Mrs. Aifred Fones has offered the prize for the pivet bridge that will follow the luncheon on January 12 and on the 18th there will be another dinner followed by movies. The last event of the month will be the luncheon and bridge on Saturday January 26, and Mrs. H. H. DeLoss has offered the prize for the bridge.

nornics Committee. The government works All women who are the test of the condition of the condit stration, in order to show women how clothing . Then rin a close little suit to do their part in winning the way or coats whichever you want. That is substantially greater than family supplies should report in the War Emergency Food Survey of the United States to be made as of tomorrow, even though they de not receive inquiry blanks by mail, according to a statement made here today by Charles J. Brand, Chief of the Bureau of Markets of the United States De-partment of Agriculture, who has the big war inventory in charge.

Dealers and Holders of Food Emergency Board.

'We have attempted to send schedules from Washington to each of the hundreds of thousands of firms and individuals who handle the food supply of the country, but obviously it nas been physically impossible to reach them all," said Mr. Brand, "All dealers, manufacturers, and varehousemen having any food in their possession, and all other concerns, such as hotels and institutions having more than $250 worth of food on hand, should arrange to report their holdings of December 31, wheth-er schedules have been delivered to them of not. In case they do not re-ceive schedules by January 2. they should write for copies to the Bureau of Markets, United States Department curate figures in regard to existing food supplies before us that we can plan the conservation, utilization, and production of our food supply in such a way as to meet safely the extraordinary war conditions with which we have to contend. "I believe that the purpose of the force the making of reports.

JANUARY 6TH survey is generally understood and that practically all-owners and holders of food will cheerfully co-operate with us to the limit.

Miss Vers Cameron Curtis, who sang at the Red Cross benefit at Police Towns of the Miss Fannie A. Smith, head of the little boiled rice in it. Kindergarten on Lafayette arrest that bears her name, will return from Misse Betty Leeds wanghter of Mr.

and Mrs. Norman Deeds of Bracon avenue toward is home from boarding school for the holdays, is to entertain a few draher forme with an in-

East Orange, N. J., is to return this Miss Rath Hall, who attends Wel-esley College, is spending the holiday access with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hall of Laurel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Fairchild Wheeler of Myrtle avenue, is to return to Rose-mary Hall in Greenwith on Wednesday. Only the members of the Senior class have to return at this time as owing to a shortage of coal only a part of the school rooms will be open-that are too good to throw away, and A Food Demonstration will be given children who need heavy clothing for in Sherman school, Patraeld, on Bri winter. Still, how many of you who day afternoon, Jan. ith at 3 o'clock, see your children shivering with a little need to be appropriately with a little Que mother of denominade the vice my will demonstrate what to use in cooking 'Instead of Sugar,' and will make various breads and cakes on the spet.

All women who are impressed the properties about the policy of the poli worn out; and use as a pater of Make it little larger than the pattern. Children grow quickly. Lay the pattern on allergoods and be sure tentile on the straight with the wit is all out, rate another markent and keeps it should your Watch whileseed mesantiching that yourmey get acceptes With sale that is aready made to see by, sybu should have little trouble: 15 275 To make a child's cost out of one of wyour nown: Allhewighttens of your siebves will make their sleowes with little alterations: 2 200 gent of Stuff Must Report to War times you can get the service strang Some times you can get the service with butten holes all ready in place and the that sound very easy?h: Well, just trys Washington, Dec. $1—All dealers in aside till you feel like "doing somes and holders of foodstuffs in quantities thing." Sometimes a kind neighbors

FADS AND FASHIONS

ally for brassieres. Angora yarn is used for embroidery on satin gowns.

Lingerie blouses repeat the style features of silk blouses. The silhouette remains slim despite pleats and draparies. Your jabot of net should be embroidered with bright mool. a post of Jumpers are how being made with panels back and front. Organdle and butlate are used to Black veivet handbell with steer beads are always good Style. here of The hat is a very important part of the informal evening dress.

CLEAN FOOD

of Markets, United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, or should call at er write to one of the many branch effices of the bureau throughout the country. The names and locations of these branches can be secured from any concern, that has received, a papy of the achiedula.

This survey of our available, food stocks is of the greatest significance, since it will furnish the basis for the shaping by the Government of important plans and policies, vital to the ant plans and policies, vital to the ant plans and policies, vital to the state of the sta

Reliable Recipe

NEST SALAD

Make a nest of water cress, boil 4 eggs hard (half an hour) nell and arrange them in the nest. Pour a French dressing and serve with toasted crackers.

VEGETABLE HASH

One half cup chopped carrots, 1 cup chopped pointes, 1-2 cup chopped that the drops onion luce, 2 cups chopped cabbase, 1 cap chopped beets, 2 tablespoons beef fat, 1-4 cup milk or hot water, salt and sepper. Mell fat in iron frying pan, when hisking hot, pour in the above is relients, spread evenly, cover and cook slowly 1-2 hour. Fold, tupn and the

TOMATO SHORTCAKE

Cover layers of split short cake crust with cream of the serve, or prepare unstrained stomatoes the same as for stage and ser crust. Another way is to stew the tomatoes down thick enough to making the short cake of baking powder biscuit dough, split sed first, season the tomatoes with a little pepper and sait put in a president of the short cake of baking powder biscuit dough, split sed first, season the tomatoes with a little pepper and sait put in a president sold a fivery tart while cooking. RABBIT BROTH theatre, yesterday afternoon, spent the week end with her mothet. Mrs. John water. Cuttup half pound shin of beef, add to the rabbit. Bring slowly to cuttis, at her home on Coleman a boil. Add salt and eight peppercorns just before boiling. Ekin capfully, street.

Simple Fannia A Smith head of the little boiled rice in it.

POTATO SALAD

Boil and mash six large potatoes. Mash with butter, salt and a little kindergarten and normal school will reopen after the holiday season on Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs. C. Valentine Barring up the whites of the eggs and mix all well together. Add a little more vineton of Black Rock, had as their guest over Sunday. Erederick Guestar of the state of the eggs and mix all well together. Add a little more vinetom of Black Rock, had as their guest over Sunday. Erederick Guestar of the eggs and mix all well together. Add a little more vinetom of Black Rock, had as their guest over Sunday. Erederick Guestar of the eggs and mix all well together. Add a little more vinetom of Black Rock, had as their guest of the eggs and mix all well together. Add a little more vinetom of Black Rock, had as their guest of the eggs and mix all well together.

over Sunday, Frederick Guaster obeyes and Sunday Smoked Herring with boiling water. Let stand 20 minutes. Drain. skim the Red Cross benefit at Poll's theatre and broil over a clear fire 10 minutes, or bake in oven 15 minutes. Spread

From Fashion Shops

Miss Mary Mills of West avenue.

Character, provided, of course, one is willing to pay the price that diever Kindergarten and Normal school who has been spending the holidays in East Orange. N. J. is to return this some light collar or chemisatte is still the prevailing thing; but these are so been spending the holdays in the spending the holdays in the sast Orange, N. J., is to return this some light collar or chemisette is still the prevailing thing; but there are many food models in which sheer and heavy stuffs are combined and some attractive biouses entirely of satin velvet or creps. Smoot little models, straight and short, to be work outside the skirt, are made in hywryt and is satin and are delightful where the wearer is stender enough as all the videning given to the figure by this little similarious of waist and hip curves. One of these blouses was in a dasp die time set in unbroidered in narrow bands of rich warm Original culors and increase bordered in any ordered in providered in brown velvet embroidered in brown and all.

The sudden vogue of matelasses is remarkable, stead of the true matelasses tissue, satin is stilched is strictly speaking, in initiation of an initiation for the tissue is woven in imitation of the cid. Delicated prowith which our forebears enriched sheet tee and housegowns. This stitched satis a exceeding the same token, exceedingly expensive. stitched in this fashion—and never were there waistsoned by Evening cloaks are stitched in this way with thread ferent colors, and bordered with rich the dutts—and lassee muff is an old story.

Just now we have with us the matelassee has and the *Of black satin is this hat, with a brim about two a and a high, square "crush" crown. The stitching in a on the bring, the sides of the crows and the middle of the too, and there is no other trimming. No trimming is needed however, for the dillied effect is exceedingly pretty and imparts to the satin a very old rich hopearance. Exfrenely smart is this latest creation. In being it is also very pretty, but the being model exhibited in the Hamar salons has a slightly narrow brim.

Home Dress Making Lessons

Specially Prepared for this Newspaper by Pictorial Review

alegor down

Blouse of Very Chic Design to the sales and to sales

Making its boso emong the modes for Autumn is this this eatih blouse trimmed with crops Georgette, Insert-ed pockets trim the fronts.

The plain satin blouse makes its Autumn bow in some yery chie forms, with smartly applied touches of contrasting material. The design: shown here is in dark bine, with cuffs and turn-over of the collar of tan green Georgetta. The back of the yoke effect, the front being sittached to it. If preferred, the coller may be rolled in low effect with the fron-of the waist. Inserted peckets trim the front of the waist. In medius size the waist requires 3% yards 30 inch satin, with 1/2 yard crepe Geor gette for trimming.

The cuiting guide is provided for the assistance of home sewers who have not had much experience making their own clothes and if for lowed faithfully, miscakes and wast of material will be avoided. First take the satin and fold it in helf on a smooth surface. If there is not a sewing table convenient, the insterial may be placed on the floor, arrived place into position from of the blouse, with large "O" perforation on a lengthwise thread of material. To the right of the front lay the facing and below the facing place the back and cellar, with triple "TTT" perforations resting on the lengthtern remain now, and there will be just enough material for them the sleeve and two cuffs sections. The large "O" parforations in each piece are laid on a lengthwise thread of

The high necked blouses may not be as comfortable as the low necked models, but they dare constantly growing in favor. The fitting of a high collar is no small proble if made with care from a correct model, the risks are reduced to a

CUTTING GUIDE SELVAGE EDGES F 000 FACING FRONT M DZ ated April 30,1907 at a FOLD OF SE INCH MATERIAL WITH NAD